ERROR IN NOTICE.

Town of Chaplin Sued Town of Bloomfield, Making Mistake in Name of Charge.

The case of the town of Chaplin against the town of Bloomfield, a suit for $27 for supplies furnished an applicant for town aid, who it was claimed, was a resident of the defendant town, was tried in the superior court in this city Tuesday morning, but was ended quickly with the second witness, when a variance in name was pointed out in the notice given the defendant by the selection of Chaplin.
 The complaint alleged notice of the claim of February 12th last, Edward B. Copeland, the person in question, was the first witness, testifying to living in Bloomfield where he conducted a grocery store for about eight years, up to 1913. He moved to Hartford, and later to Somers. In 1910 he was admitted to the Hartford hospital, and later to St. Francis hospital. Then he was in the Hartford street and in the Middletown asylum staying at the latter institution until July of 1913. He stayed with his sister in Chaplin a short time, then returned to Middletown to live, and returned to Chaplin in January, 1915.
 Soon after he applied for aid.

Arthur M. Welch, selectman of Chaplin, told of the application of Copeland for aid. It was in answer to a question of Attorney S. B. Harvey in regard to the notice, which is required by statute to be sent, in all such cases, that the case reached a head.
 Attorney Bill of Hartford objected to oral questions, and gave Mr. Harvey the original notice. This was attempted to be introduced, and Judge Bill then objected to its admission, as it read "Charles B." instead of "Edward B." A recess was taken in order that the plaintiff might be able to present on this point, and later Plaintiff, the town of Chaplin, was allowed to withdraw the case. Court then adjourned until this morning at ten fifteen when the case of Roth & Lask vs. George B.
 Frost, finishing company will be taken up.

Quarrel Has Expensive Ending.
 The only matter before the police court Tuesday morning was a charge of breach of the peace presented against Daniel Millane and Alfred Duff, both under twenty-one, who, according to the stories told in court, had been out with each other for several days, and "mixed it up" at the Valley street skating rink Saturday night, finishing the bout in the street to the enjoyment of a good-sized audience. A fine and costs amounting to eight dollars and a half was paid by each participant in the affair.

 o'clock in the morning. The other ceremony was performed an hour later when Peter Serota and Agatha Urbanik were married.

Attached Team in Lebanon Case.
 Constable Thomas Killourey early Tuesday morning attached a horse and wagon belonging to Casimier and Katie Soles of Lebanon. The suit brought by Joseph Miel for wages.
 The horse was lodged in Johnson's stable, but later was released, as a settlement of the matter was reached without waiting for the court's action.

 Include Bribery and Conspiracy.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—The Daily News today publishes an authority "of a man who is familiar with every act of the grand jury," a story that one hundred business agents of labor unions of Chicago will be indicted by the November grand jury.

The charges, it is said, include bribery, accepting bribes, concealed and slugging affairs. Great secrecy marked the inquiry and it is said that many business men and contractors testified as to the methods of business agents who acted without the authority of their unions. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are said to have changed hands in the alleged "stake-downs."

When You Can't Smoke

that's the time to chew LIBERTY. When you can smoke—that the time to choose LIBERTY.

This pure Kentucky tobacco is the great favorite with men of vigor. It is full-bodied and satisfying. It gets its pleasant richness from the natural aging we give it for three to five years. And that is what keeps its quality up, always the same, no matter what the year's crop may be.

LIBERTY

Long Cut Tobacco

has always given prime pleasure to manly men.
 A LIBERTY man never switches to another brand; he knows he's losing time and pleasure on a needless experiment. Many brands come and go into the discard—while LIBERTY holds old friends and makes new ones every day.

There's a snappy taste to LIBERTY that policemen and other big fellows like. It's got that man-size quality about it; not one of those insipid, next-to-nothing tobaccos—but the big king-brand for the he-men on the force.

A week's trial will make you a permanent user of LIBERTY—go to it today.

Sold everywhere in 5c packages.

Buyers After Turkey.
 Turkey buyers have been through the farming districts around the borough offering prices and purchasing for the city market. But few bargains, however, were closed. Turkey buyers are scarce in this section this year. A.
 C. Hawkins, who handles turkeys for the Providence and Boston markets, is the raiser of the famous white breed.
 Turkey raisers find it exceedingly hard to get the birds by the day or month stage. Damp weather for a day or two in April or May gives them a cold and hundreds may die in a week. One raiser lost 40 from a brood of 70 in five days. All summer they are the prey of foxes and fortunate is the farmer who gets 35 out of 75 to the Thanksgiving market. It is predicted here that the price will be 38 and 40 cents per pound.

When Canal Was First Talked Of.
 In old papers and documents current at the time the Norwich-Worcester canal venture was first assisted locally, some interesting tales are described. It is said that in the vicinity of Pomfret, according to one of the old records, some patriarch, whose name was not given, favored the idea, as the land, he said, when the salt tide water came up in the canal he could sit in his back door and catch codfish.
 Even today the locality is known as Codfish flats.
